

2024 Virtuoso Artists Festival: Rules, Guidelines, and Agreement

Overview

The Seattle International Piano Festival (SIPF) announces the tenth edition of the Virtuoso Artists Festival (recorded video edition) for pianists, instrumentalists, and chamber musicians featuring works from the Romantic to the Contemporary era. Participants of any age or nationality may participate.

This competitive event was created to provide performing and educational opportunities for those who wish to share their love of Romantic, Impressionistic, and Modern repertoire (for solo piano, solo instrumentalists, and chamber music with piano) and to provide performers with constructive feedback from performing and teaching masters. Participants will receive educational evaluations, and a chance to receive medals and certificates.

This festival sets forth narrowly defined age groups so that they may be fairly judged, and generously decorated. The 2024 Virtuoso Artists Festival also includes works from the Romantic era and later styles, as well as single- and multiple- work sub-divisions.

Application Deadline

This festival has been organized to accept participants and survey performances via video entry only, avoiding the need to congregate on a predetermined day. The application deadline is Monday, June 17, 2024 at 9:00 PM (PST). Review of entries takes place over the 2 weeks following this deadline. Note that participants may opt to register online early without supplying a video link. A separate online video entry form is available for those participants who have registered prior to the deadline. June 17 at 9:00 PM also represents the last moment participants may submit links which will be appended to their registration form data.

Eligibility

The following age performance divisions and age categories delineate all forms of participation within the Virtuoso Artists Festival.

Solo Division (piano or instrumentalist), Single Work (choose any one Romantic, Impressionistic, or Contemporary solo work up to the maximum allotted time). The participant age category sets the total time duration limit according to the schedule below. Fee: $88

- age 8 and under—up to 5 minutes of music.
- ages 9 to 10—up to 6 minutes of music.
- ages 11 to 12—up to 9 minutes of music.
- ages 13 to 14—up to 12 minutes of music.
- ages 15 to 16—up to 12 minutes of music.
- ages 17 to 18—up to 12 minutes of music.
- collegiate—up to 12 minutes of music.
- adults, age 19 or older—up to 12 minutes of music.
- professional—up to 12 minutes of music.

Solo Division (piano or instrumentalist; choose one work representative of the Romantic, Impressionistic, or Contemporary eras), Multiple Works (choose any two or more Romantic, Impressionistic, or Contemporary solo works up to the maximum allotted time, two of which must represent contrasting periods at minimum within the three stylistic eras; for instrumental entries, accompaniment is not required)

Chamber Music Division (the eldest ensemble participant determines the age group for the entire ensemble; choose one or more movements from a single chamber work within the Romantic, Impressionistic, or Contemporary eras)

- ages 13 and under—up to 10 minutes of music. Fee: $30 per participant
- ages 14 to 18—up to 12 minutes of music. Fee: $35 per participant
- collegiate—12 minutes. Fee: $35 per participant
- adults, age 19 or older—12 minutes. Fee: $35 per participant
- professional—12 minutes. Fee: $35 per participant

Concerto Division (piano or instrumentalist; choose one or more movements from a single solo concerto work within the Romantic, Impressionistic, or Contemporary eras; accompaniment is not required; see above for age divisions; this division will be subdivided into piano entries and non-piano entries; one complete movement, or multiple movements not to exceed 15 minutes in total length; solo excerpts without tutti are permissible). This division further groups participants within the following age brackets. Fee: $88

- ages 13 and under.
- ages 14 to 18.
- collegiate.
- adults, age 19 or older.
- professional.

To qualify within a given age category, participants must be the defined age as of June 17, 2024. In the case of any change to the deadline, a participant's age on June 17 still determines the category of division. There is no set limit regarding the number of students that a single teacher may submit. Likewise, teachers are in no way required to provide any volunteer assistance or pay any fee in order to submit students. Participants may apply multiple times if they wish to compete in more than one division.

For the purposes of division definition, Chamber Music includes works for one piano with strings, woodwinds, or brass written for two (minimum) to five (maximum) players. Literature for two or three pianists at one piano (four- or six-hands) or two pianos is also included within the definition of Chamber Music. The eldest member determines the age division for the entire participating ensemble. In the case of music for piano four-hands, pieces must be original compositions for this configuration, rather than transcriptions or arrangements (this excludes works such as Brahms' string quartets arranged for piano, 4-hands). Likewise, arrangements from the solo concerto repertoire, or other soloist-with-orchestra genres are not considered 'Chamber Music.'

Repertoire

Participants are free to select any work or works for participation in the Solo or Chamber Music divisions that are conventionally considered within the romantic, impressionistic, and contemporary era. The SIFP advisory board reserves the right to refuse any selections that may challenge the prevailing understood boundaries of these style periods. If you have concerns or questions regarding your repertoire selection, you may write with the subject heading "Repertoire Ruling" to cbloomberg@live.com. Please allow 3-5 days for a response.

Works performed must be complete movements (no cuts or excerpts allowed). Examples include the entire first movement of Schumann's Sonata in G minor, Op. 22, or all variations of Brahms' entire set, Variations on an Original theme, Op. 21, No. 1. Miniatures, including études, scherzi, dances, and the like, may be chosen singly, completely, or among a subset of selected favorites and need not be presented entirely in their cyclic form. Multiple movements/miniatures/selections chosen from the same superset are considered "single works" for the purpose of subdividing performance divisions. Examples include multiple movements from Schumann's Kinderszenen, Op.15, or two movements from Chopin's Sonata in B minor, Op.58. Portions of movements or indivisible collections, such as only the Prelude of a Prelude and Fugue by Mendelssohn, or the exposition section of the sonata by Samuel Barber, are not acceptable. Solo participants can perform more than one work. All solo division participants will be divided into the single work or multiple work sub-groups. However, multiple work performers must choose from at least two contrasting style periods within Romantic, Impressionistic, or Contemporary styles. All chosen works regardless of participation group must collectively fit within the allotted time of the respective participant's division and age group. Failure to select repertoire that fits within the time limit allotted one's age category may jeopardize eligibility to participate. Concerti are admissible for the 2024 Virtuoso Artists Festival within the Concerto Division.

All solo entries (both piano and instrumental) must be performed by memory. Adults, age 19 and over are exempt from performing by memory.

Instrumental or Concerto Accompaniment. The participant need not supply a piano accompanist for their video recording, however, supplying an accompaniment is strongly encouraged. In such a cases as performance without accompaniment, the performer may exhibit his or her excerpts only, omitting tacit sections, provided no edited cuts are involved in the video compilation (video footage must still conform the standards found in “Video Submission”, below).

Applications

Applications are only available online for completion at <http://www.seattlepiano.competition.org/nw-festivals/application/virtuoso-online-form/>. In order to be considered for participation, applications must be filled out correctly and completely and electronic payment successfully made with a valid credit card. Incomplete applications are unacceptable. Note that participants may opt to register online early without supplying a video link. A separate online video entry form is available for those participants who have registered prior to the deadline. June 17, 2024 at 9:00 PM also represents the last moment participants may submit links which will be appended to their registration form data. Please refer frequently to the SIPF website for updates, errata, adjudicator information, as well as results.

The application process begins now and closes Monday, June 17, 2024 at 9:00 pm Pacific Standard Time.

All entry fees are nonrefundable.

Video Submission

All participants must submit publicly accessible videos via YouTube link (may be attached to the application, or entered later on this alternate video submission form). The SIPF takes no responsibility for videos that have permissions set to limit viewership or are published through any other video sharing platform (vimeo, etc). Ensure that your video is viewable by a third party, even if you choose to make them unlisted.

Participants are free to submit up to three separate video links when applying under categories that may include multiple movements or works (different movements or works are not required to be on the same video link). Participants familiar with previous editions no longer need to include a verbal introduction. However, the participant's name must be listed in the title of the link and/or in the contents description, and match exactly the name as it appears in the application form.

Recordings must conform to the following standards and procedures:

- Name matching the performer (exactly as included on the application form) in the link title and/or the contents description, clearly visible (a briefly flashing caption bearing the performer's name does not satisfy this requirement, but may be included in addition to the stated requirement).
- Recordings must consist of unedited, uninterrupted video footage of the participant from a single camera angle with coverage of the performer's hands and face at all times (one track per single movement; separate tracks for multiple pieces or movements is permissible).
- Recordings must be cued to begin within five seconds of the start of the footage (may be edited to cut to a 5 second leader).
- Recordings must feature the work with which the participant originally entered on the application form (no changes to the stated repertoire will be allowed after applying).
- Recordings must be uploaded to YouTube and set for unlisted or public access (no private listings requiring permissions).

The entry form will accept your links. Enter the performer's name exactly like you entered in the original competition entry form. The form will go offline when the deadline lapses. Please ensure you receive an automated confirmation message within minutes of your entry. Failure to receive a message indicates a transmission issue or incomplete submission. If you don't get a confirmation immediately, write to cbloomberg@live.com

Music Scores

No scores are required. The entire process is adjudicated solely from video performance.

Prizes and Results

Results of the review will be published in a special announcement following the conclusion of the review process. Results will be posted on or shortly after July 1 on the winners' page.

Each participant, his/her family, friends, and guests, and each teacher/coach must accept any juror's decision as final and unappealable. Attendees of the festival may not approach, engage with, or debate any aspect of the decision or his or her commentary with any juror, both before and after the performance event. Participants must furthermore treat the SIPF volunteers and organizers with respect, and may not debate or question results or commentary. Failure to adhere to this rule may permanently disbar the participant and/or all students of a participant's teacher from future such festivals and competitions. Contacting an adjudicator directly is strictly prohibited.

Any words of appreciation, complaints, comments, or suggestions may be submitted in written form and mailed to: 58 Front Street N, Ste 200, Issaquah, WA 98027.

All results are final and unappealable.
